

Anti-Corruption

The Company's Board of Directors are determined to develop the organization to grow with sustainability, transparency, good governance and social responsibility by which the Company, on 9 March 2015, declared its intention to join the Collective Action Coalition of Thai private sectors for the purpose of anti-corruption. With this coalition, the Company will cooperate with public sectors, civil society, mass media and international organization to create a clear business standard according to virtue and morality and to carry on the business with anti-corruption principles in every form.